

A Project Learning Tree Workshop
for Middle and High School Teachers, Interested
Parents, and Non-formal Educators

Global Connections: Forests of the World

And a Tour of Bingham Lumber, Inc

Saturday, March 7, 2009

9am to 12:30

Bingham Lumber, Inc., 89 Route 13, Brookline, NH

About the Workshop

This session will introduce secondary educators PLT's newest secondary module.

Global Connections: Forests of the World provides formal and non-formal educators with a series of activities to help students and educators gain an increased understanding and appreciation of the diversity of world forest environments, with an emphasis on the human interaction with and dependence on those environments. The module activities provide students with opportunities to apply scientific processes and higher order thinking skills while investigating world forestry issues and conducting service learning action projects. For more information on the module, visit: http://www.plt.org/cms/pages/21_21_17.html

You will receive the following:

- Hands-on experience with classroom-ready activities and resources,
- Project Learning Tree's "Global Connections: Forests of the World" module
- 3 hours of professional development credits, and
- A Tour of Bingham Lumber, a third generation family owned business offering high quality interior and exterior finish wood products, which include a full line of Old Growth and Reclaimed Wide Plank Flooring. We will tour the lumber mill and showroom.

Location: Bingham Lumber, Inc., 89 Route 13, Brookline, NH

Cost: The registration fee is $15 per person. Space is limited, so register early. For more information, call Sara at 226-0160 or e-mail info@nhplt.org.
